UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

10

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

NO. 2:25-cr-00043-RAJ

11

Plaintiff,

DISCOVERY PROTECTIVE ORDER

12

v.

13

DERRICK MAURICE JACKSON,
AMANDA MATTESON LEENHOUTS, and TIFFANY JOHNSON,

14

Defendants.

15

This matter, having come to the Court's attention on the parties' joint motion for entry of a discovery protective order, and the Court, having considered the motion, and being fully advised in this matter, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim P. 16(d)(1), hereby enters the following PROTECTIVE ORDER:

16

18

1. Protected Material. For purposes of this Order, "Protected Materials" shall include: (1) audio and/or video recordings of confidential informants who conducted controlled purchases of narcotics; and (2) financial records containing personal identifying information ("PII") obtained during the investigation.

19

21

22

2. Designation of Protected Material. The Protected Material shall be designated by the government, on the material itself, in a placeholder if the electronic file

23

25

26

27

1 cannot be marked (as is the case with certain native files), or on a physical label affixed to
 2 a disk or other media, using the following designation “PROTECTED MATERIAL.” The
 3 failure to designate any materials as Protected shall not constitute a waiver of a party’s
 4 assertion that the materials are covered by this Protective Order. If material is later found
 5 to be covered by this Protective Order, the government will re-produce a properly
 6 designated copy of the material.

8 3. Production of Protected Material to the Defense. The United States will 9 make available copies of the Protected Materials directly to defense counsel to comply with 10 the government’s discovery obligations. Possession of copies of Protected Material is 11 limited to attorneys of record, their office staff, investigators, paralegals, assistants, and 12 law clerks, as well as necessary third-party vendors, consultants, and/or experts (hereinafter 13 collectively referred to as “members of the defense team”). At all times, members of the 14 defense team shall be subject to the terms of this order. Further, the attorneys of record are 15 required to make available, prior to disseminating any copies of the Protected or Sensitive
 16 Materials to members of the defense team, a copy of this Protective Order to members of 17 the defense team.

18 4. Restrictions on use with Artificial Intelligence Tools. The Protected
 19 Material shall not be loaded into an artificial intelligence (AI) tool or model, generative or 20 not, where rights to the data are retained by any party that has not explicitly agreed to be 21 covered by the protective order.

22 5. Review of Protected Material by Defendants. The attorney(s) of record
 23 and members of the defense team may share and review the Protected Material with 24 Defendants. If a Defendant is in custody at the Federal Detention Center (FDC), he/she 25 will be permitted to review the Protected Material, consistent with the regulations
 26 established by the BOP, with or without counsel, in a controlled environment at the FDC, 27 but will be prohibited from printing out, copying, disseminating, or otherwise retaining the discovery. If a Defendant is on pretrial release, he/she will be permitted to review the

2 Protected Material at the offices of his/her counsel, but will be prohibited from printing
3 out, copying, or disseminating the discovery.

4 6. Limits on Dissemination of Protected Materials. The attorney(s) of record
5 and members of the defense team acknowledge that providing copies of the Protected
6 Material to Defendant(s) and other persons is prohibited and agree not to duplicate or 7 provide copies of the Protected Material to Defendant(s) and other persons. Members of 8 the defense team, Defendants, and any others to whom disclosure of the content of 9 Protected Material may be necessary to assist with the preparation of the defense, shall not 10 disclose the Protected Material or its contents, other than as necessary for the preparation
11 of defenses at trial and in subsequent legal proceedings, if necessary. This order does not 12 limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of 13 Washington from disclosing the Protected Material to members of the United States
14 Attorney's Office, law enforcement agencies, witnesses, and the Court and defense as 15 necessary to comply with the government's discovery obligations.

16 7. Future Production of Additional Protected Materials. Additional types of 17 discovery items may be deemed by the parties to constitute Protected Material upon 18 agreement, or (if no agreement can be reached) by further order of the Court.

19 8. No Waiver. Nothing in this order should be construed as imposing any 20 substantive discovery obligations on the government that are different from those imposed
21 by case law and Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

22 9. Use of Protected Material in Court. Any Protected or Sensitive Material
23 that is filed with the Court in connection with pre-trial motions, trial, or other matter before
24 this Court, shall be filed under seal and shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered by this 25 Court. This does not entitle either party to seal their filings as a matter of course. The parties
26 are required to comply in all respects with the relevant local and federal rules of criminal 27 procedure pertaining to the sealing of court documents. If the Protected Material to be filed with the Court was designated as Protected solely because it contains personal-identifying

1 information, it may be filed publicly, provided it has been redacted in compliance with
2 Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 49.1 and Local Criminal Rule 49.1.

4 10. Non-Termination. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the 5 conclusion of this prosecution. Furthermore, after any judgment or disposition has become 6 final and there are no pending proceedings, challenges, appeals, or habeas motions in the 7 case, defense counsel shall destroy the Protected Materials. If defense counsel finds that
8 retention of the Protected Materials in their possession is necessary for authorized reasons,
9 such as professional or ethical obligations, defense counsel shall retain the Protected
10 Materials in their case file subject to the restrictions of this Order.

11 11. Violation of Order. Any person who willfully violates this order may be 12 held in contempt of court and may be subject to monetary or other sanctions as deemed 13 appropriate by this Court.

14 12. Modification of Order. Nothing in this Stipulation shall prevent any party
15 from seeking modification of this Protective Order or from objecting to discovery that it
16 believes to be otherwise improper. The parties agree that if compliance with this Order
17 makes it difficult for defense counsel to adhere to their Sixth Amendment obligations, or 18 otherwise imposes an unworkable burden on counsel, defense counsel shall bring any 19 concerns about the terms of the Order to the attention of the government. The parties shall 20 then meet and confer with the intention of finding a mutually acceptable solution. If the 21 parties cannot reach such a solution, defense counsel shall have the right to bring any 22 concerns about the scope or terms of the Order to the attention of the Court by way of a 23 motion.

24 13. No Ruling on Discoverability or Admissibility. This Protective Order does
25 not constitute a ruling on the question of whether any particular material is properly 26 discoverable or admissible and does not constitute any ruling on any potential objection to 27 the discoverability of any material.

2 14. No Ruling on Timing of Production. This Protective Order does not require
3 the Government to provide particular discovery at a time or in a fashion inconsistent with 4 applicable law.

5 15. Addition of Defendants after Entry of Order. This Protective Order will 6 cover additional Defendants in this case so long as they agree to be bound by the terms of 7 this Protective Order and so indicate that consent by the execution of a supplemental
8 stipulation, which shall be filed as an addendum or supplement to this Protective Order.

10 DATED this 12th day of June, 2025.
